1 MICHELE BECKWITH Acting United States Attorney 2 KEVIN C. KHASIGIAN Assistant U. S. Attorney 501 I Street, Suite 10-100 3 Sacramento, CA 95814 4 Telephone: (916) 554-2700 5 Attorneys for the United States 6 7 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 8 EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA 9 10 11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 2:24-CV-00889-TLN-JDP 12 Plaintiff. STIPULATION TO STAY FURTHER 13 PROCEEDINGS AND ORDER v. 14 REAL PROPERTY LOCATED AT 15999 RIVER ROAD, GUERNEVILLE, 15 CALIFORNIA, SONOMA COUNTY, APN: 070-050-032-000, INCLUDING ALL 16 APPURTENANCES AND IMPROVEMENTS THERETO, ET AL., 17 Defendants. 18 19 The United States and claimants Matthew Gillum and Shauna Barnard hereby stipulate that a 20 stay is necessary in the above-entitled action and request that the Court enter an order staying all 21 further proceedings until the resolution of the related criminal case, United States v. Matthew Gillum, 22 Case No. 2:25-CR-0053-TLN. 23 1. This is a forfeiture in rem action against riverfront property in Guerneville, California 24 (the "Guerneville Property") and a promissory note secured by real property located at 2930 Locan 25 Avenue in Clovis, California (the "Promissory Note") (collectively, the "defendant assets") because 26 the defendant assets were allegedly purchased with drug proceeds that were illegally laundered in violation of federal drug and money laundering laws. Matthew Gillum, as Trustee of the Gillum

Family Protection Trust, filed a claim asserting an ownership interest in the defendant Guerneville Property. Shauna Barnard filed a claim asserting an ownership interest in the defendant Promissory Note.

- 2. The parties jointly request the matter be stayed pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 981(g)(1), 981(g)(2), and 21 U.S.C. § 881(i). The United States contends that the defendant assets represent proceeds of drug sales in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841, as well as property involved in money laundering transactions in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1956-57. Claimants deny these allegations.
- 3. To date in the companion criminal case, Matthew Gillum has been charged with federal crimes related to a series of money laundering transactions involving the proceeds of illegal drugs, United States v. Matthew Gillum, Case No. 2:25-CR-0053-TLN (the "related criminal case"). The United States intends to depose the claimants (and others) regarding their ownership of the defendant assets, as well as their knowledge and participation in Matthew Gillum's alleged crimes involving the defendant assets. If discovery proceeds at this time, claimants will be placed in the difficult position of either invoking their Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination and losing the ability to pursue their claims to the defendant assets or waiving their Fifth Amendment rights and submitting to a deposition and potentially incriminating themselves. If they invoke their Fifth Amendment rights, the United States will be deprived of the ability to explore the factual basis for the claims they filed with this court.
- 4. In addition, claimants intend to depose, among others, the agents involved with this investigation, including but not limited to, the agents with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"). Allowing depositions of the law enforcement officers at this time would adversely impact the federal prosecution and ongoing investigation.
- 5. The parties recognize that proceeding with these actions has potential adverse effects on the investigation of the underlying criminal conduct and/or upon the claimant's ability to assert any defenses to forfeiture. For these reasons, the parties jointly request that these matters be stayed until the conclusion of the related criminal case. At that time, the parties will advise the court of the status of the related criminal case, if any, and will advise the court whether a further stay is necessary.
 - 6. If any of the defendant assets go into default, the parties reserve all rights, including the
